

BOHRN TO ACHIEVE

Childcare & Preschool

Discipline Policy

All kids need guidelines; we never publicly shame a child. When discipline is required we first try to simply re-direct to a more positive activity. On occasion we use time-out in age-appropriate increments; usually one minute per year of your child's age. All children are unique and respond differently to discipline. If our simple strategies are not effective, we will schedule a conference with parents and staff to work out a successful plan of action.